BUILDING BRIDGES TO PEACE

An Interfaith Debate Event

Omaha, NE 1BJuly 31, 2014– “Can Interfaith projects succeed?” This is the central question that will be answered at the first in a series of “Building Bridges to Peace” events in the Midwest. The event will be held on August 7th, 2014. See attached flyer for details.

The highlight of the evening will be a discussion/debate between Dr. Jamie Glazov, the Editor of Front Page Magazine and Dr. Naser Alsharif, a Muslim leader of Palestinian ancestry. Political correctness will be left at the door as we seek to replace suspicion with transparency and confusion with enlightenment.

God-willing, we will all emerge the better for the experience.

The event will be hosted by myself Dr. Mark Christian, the Executive Director of the Global Faith Institute. My co-host will be Joe Herring, columnist and policy analyst and our Master of Ceremonies will be Scott Voorhees from 1110 KFAB in Omaha.

Please find attached a flyer with details of the event for your review. Questions or requests for interview may be directed to either myself at 402-980-2872 or Joe Herring at 402-317-7586.

Kindest regards,

Dr. Mark Christian

Executive Director
